

Windows License Update Procedure

On the computer acting as your network license server, open the Wavefunction License Server Control program:

Please note, we recommend that you download and install the latest License Server Control Available, you can check your version number against the very latest available from the link: <https://www.wavefun.com/downloads>

Your current licensing will be recognized and you will be presented with a summary of this. . . Click on the Update button:

The screenshot shows the 'License Server Control - Existing Network License(s)' window. It features a 'Key ID' field with the placeholder text 'You're Key ID here'. Below this is a table listing various products, their seat counts, and license terms. At the bottom of the window, there are buttons for '< Back', 'Transfer', 'Update' (highlighted with a red box), and 'Done'. A red text prompt 'Click To Update' is positioned above the 'Update' button.
